Pork Tenderloin Planks with Green Herb Sauce

Prep: 15 mins

Cook: 30 mins

Serves: 8

The rich green colour of the Darling children's beloved Christmas tree reminds them of their adventures in Never Land alongside Peter Pan and Tinker Bell. This main dish features an irresistible sauce made with fresh herbs and lemon that captures some of those magical green hues, too!

Ingredients

- 2 small pork tenderloins, trimmed
- 30g fresh coriander, leaves and stems
- 10g fresh mint, torn
- 4g fresh basil, leaves torn
- 1-2 tbsp lemon juice
- 1 garlic clove
- ¼ tsp black pepper, plus extra for seasoning
- ½ tsp salt, plus extra for seasoning
- 6 tbsp olive oil

Method

1. Ask an adult for help with the oven, then heat it to 200°C. Place the olive oil, salt, pepper, coriander, mint, basil, lemon juice, and garlic in a food processor. Blend until smooth. Transfer 3 tablespoons of the sauce to a small bowl and set the rest aside for serving.
2. Season the tenderloins with salt and pepper. Use the 3 tablespoons of sauce to baste them, then place them on a baking sheet. Roast until a thermometer inserted in the center of each registers 63°C, about 25 minutes.
3. With the help of a grown-up, place the pan under the grill for 1 to 2 minutes to lightly brown the outsides of the roasts. Watch carefully to avoid burning. Let rest for 5 minutes, then serve with the remaining sauce.

Tip: The sauce in this recipe can be made a day ahead and refrigerated. If it becomes solid overnight, be sure to give it enough time to reach room temperature before serving.
